Mid-Mon retailers predicting promising holiday sales season

By KAREN PETERS and BOB GARDNER

If this morning is any indicator, 1995 is going to be a phenomenal holiday season for retail stores in the Mid-Mon Valley.

Lines of prospective customers were reported at several local department stores today as many opened early for the traditional kickoff of the holiday shopping season.

"I've been in retail for 20 years, and this is the most people I've ever seen in my lobby on the day after Thanksgiving," said Ray Kramer, manager of Hills Department Store in Rostraver Township. "It's incredible."

Kramer said people were lined up in both directions outside the store as they waited for it to open at 6 a.m. "It's outstanding," Kramer said. "I think it's going to be a good season."

Aside from some "hot toy items," Kramer said shoppers appeared to be interested in holiday items and a wide array of other merchandise. The store's shelves are well-stocked and extended hours will be in effect from now through Christmas, he said.

The traditionally heavy shopping day did not elude Montgomery Wards in Charleroi, according to Manager Mary Cavazzi.

Extended hours are also in effect there, and shoppers did not seem to be interested in specific items but rather a mix of merchandise. "I think it's going to be a great season," Cavazzi said.

Holiday items were in demand at Cavanaugh's True Value in Rostraver, where Assistant Manager Dean Carlson said the store was "very busy" this morning. "Our parking lot was full when we opened at 8 a.m.," he said.

John Schwarm, manager of Radio Shack in Tri-County Shopping Plaza in Rostraver Township, said activity there was "moderate" today.

Because the store is in a shopping plaza rather than a mall, Schwarm said the day after Thanksgiving is not always the heaviest for that particular Radio Shack location. But heavy activity at the local department stores such as Hills and Kmart will trickle down to his store, Schwarm said.

Crowds of shoppers were reported waiting outside Kmart in Kmart Plaza, Belle Vernon, when Kmart opened at 7 a.m. today.

"It's very crowded this morning," Manager David Gable said. "There's a big crowd around our 14-carat gold jewelry department and a lot of interest being exhibited in our T-Fal cookware sets. Our electronics department is also very busy."

Kmart will open at 8 a.m. for the remainder of the Christmas shopping season, Gable said, noting the store will stay open until midnight the week before Christmas.

Mar-Bill Distributors Sales Manager Jerome Bilsky said shoppers were "out and about" this morning. "I expect business to pick up later in the day," he said.

Mar-Bill, located at 400 Broad Ave., Belle Vernon, also has a jewelry store in Tri-County Plaza, Belle Vernon.

Ron Wilen, owner of Eisenberg's in Monessen and Charleroi, expressed optimism about this year's Christmas shopping season.

"We are hopeful for a strong Christmas season. That, with the value and special service we offer as friends and neighbors to our customers, we know our customers can get their best value right here at home," Wilen said.

"In the Valley, we're all neighbors serving neighbors."

JOINING THE CLUB

Nicolee Artis, 2, daughter of Scott and Natalie Artis of Monongahela shares a Christmas kiss with Ashley Conte, 17 months, daughter of Keith and Michele Conte of Perryopolis after they joined The Valley Independent's Christmas Cheer Club.

Christmas Cheer Club now accepting members

Have you done your Christmas shopping yet?

If not, how about buying something nice for a less-fortunate child or adult?

It need not be much — a toy or an article of clothing. And it would mean so much to a little one who dreams of Santa's arrival on Christmas morning, but will be overlooked because there is no money for gifts.

Purchase the gift — we ask that it be new and cost a minimum of $5 — and bring it unwrapped to the office of The Valley Independent during regular business hours. Place it under the Christmas tree in our lobby, sign a paper ornament and put it on the tree.

That's all it takes to become a member of The Valley Independent's Christmas Cheer Club.

The Salvation Army will collect the gifts from time-to-time and distribute them to needy families in the area for Christmas. We ask that the gifts not be wrapped so that they can be readily identified so they can be given to the right girl or boy, or man or woman who would welcome them the most.

Gifts of cash are also welcome.

To the child whose parents are out of work, whose day-to-day existence means a constant struggle for the family to put food on the table, the spirit of Christmas may not exist.

That child, no matter what his age, knows that when Christmas morning comes, there will be no presents under the tree. Indeed, there may be no tree.

No child should have to experience that kind of disappointment. You can help prevent it from happening by taking a few moments of your time and buy that special gift for someone less fortunate than yourself.

You won't see the smiles of joy that light up their faces on Christmas morning, but your act of kindness will give you a pleasant feeling that will last through Christmas and throughout the coming year.

Tax hike?

Monessen may OK 3-mill increase

By DEBBIE FOSTER

MONESSEN — Taxpayers could see a three-mill increase in 1996 if the tentative budget proposed by council is adopted as it stands.

Council, by a 4-0 vote, approved the tentative spending plan Wednesday, which includes expenditures of $3,348,285. This is an increase of $115,915 from the current budget. Councilman Ed Burdock was not at the meeting.

The budget calls for real estate taxes in the amount of 24.90 mills, according to Director of Accounts and Finances Ernest Wisyanski. The increase will be split, with one mill going into the general fund to offset expenditures set by employee contracts; the remaining two mill of the increase will be delegated into the city's capital improvement fund for the ongoing street renovation project, Wisyanski said.

One mill generates $63,492 for the city's coffers, an amount that is lower than the current rate of $65,803, Wisyanski noted.

The councilman, who rarely comments on a tentative budget at the time of its introduction, broke tradition this year when he explained his feelings about the proposed increase.

"In my opinion, the street renovation project we started has been successful," Wisyanski said, noting that the 1995 budget included a 0.65-mill increase designated for capital improvements (the remaining 0.35 mill of the one-mill increase in 1995 was allocated for the general fund).

"We'll probably keep this up until all the streets are done," he added.

Wisyanski also noted the city needed to generate additional revenue since the value of a mill had decreased.

Proposed spending plan

The breakdown of expenditures for 1996 in Monessen is as follows:

General government	$435,418
Public safety	$820,958
Health and sanitation	$350,432
Highways	$498,524
Parks and recreation	$118,463
Library	$53,000
Non-governmental	$71,617
Miscellaneous	$990,673

Ridge signs gun law change

By HUNTER T. GEORGE II

HARRISBURG (AP) — In an unusually swift move, Gov. Tom Ridge waited just one day before signing a bill that seeks to correct and clarify Pennsylvania's six-week-old gun law.

The law was written to keep guns out of the hands of convicted felons, juvenile delinquents and the mentally ill. It authorized the creation of a system that will provide an instant background check for anyone who buys a gun, instead of just handgun buyers under the current system.

It will take several years to set up the system.

After the law took effect, many gun dealers were confused about, among other things, when they are supposed to ask for background checks on buyers of long guns — rifles and shotguns.

After several weeks of negotiations, the Legislature approved the amendment that was signed Wednesday, which delayed implementation of the check for purchasers of long guns until 1997.

Critics inside and outside the Legislature, particularly some sportsmens' groups, have said the amendment will only make things worse.

In other action Wednesday, Ridge announced that he has signed the last batch of bills produced by the Legislature's 10-month-long special session on crime, which ended last month. The 13 newest laws bring the total from the special session to 37.

One of the most significant new measures authorizes the automatic transfer of juveniles accused of certain violent crimes to adult court. The issue was a mainstay of Ridge's gubernatorial campaign, when he promised that juveniles who commit an adult crime will "do adult time."

The bill was sponsored by Sen. D. Michael Fisher, an Allegheny County Republican and candidate for attorney general.

"No longer will we treat violent juveniles in Pennsylvania with the kid gloves they have been accustomed to," Ridge said in a statement. "We are now sending a clear message that youth will no longer be an excuse for violence."

Another new law addresses lengthy stays on death row by setting a one-year time limit to file an appeal.

The bill's sponsor, Sen. Stewart Greenleaf, R-Montgomery, said the law should prevent death-row inmates from delaying execution by waiting years before they file appeals.

"Enactment of this law will minimize delays without depriving anyone of the right to appeal," Greenleaf said.

Dance troupe to debut Saturday in Monessen

MONESSEN — A unique dance troupe will present its debut performance this weekend

The 14-Karat Gold Dance Troupe will perform as part of a Thanksgiving Holiday Cabaret Saturday, Nov. 25, in the upstairs portion of the New Wave Club on Sixth Street. The cabaret will be held from 9 p m to 1 a.m.; the dance troupe performs at 10:30 p.m.

Other featured performers include Orders of Reality and Pure Voices, a trio comprised of Monessen residents Chester Artis, Rodney Jones and Willis Love.

The dance troupe is Artis' effort, a mission he undertook to allow himself to "give something back to the community and keep youth off the streets."

Artis is a disc jockey, known locally as "Sir Chet," who in the past was responsible for organizing the Mon Valley Junior Drillmasters and Playmates for young men from Monessen.

Those organizations disbanded several years ago when Artis left to pursue his own career in music, but interest never died down, he noted. Upon his return to Monessen this past January, Artis was approached by several parents to once again offer his talents to area youth.

"When the kids ask, I can never say no. It's my way of giving something back to everyone and if this will keep them off the streets, then I'll do as much as I can."

— Chester Artis, troupe founder

It was when the youth themselves approached him that Artis agreed, and the dance troupe was borne.

"When the kids ask, I can never say no," Artis said. "It's my way of giving something back to everyone and if this will keep them off the streets, then I'll do as much as I can."

Every day, for up to three hours, Artis, his assistant William Smith and 14 girls between the ages of 11 and 17 meet in either the upstairs rooms at the New Wave Club or the recreation room at the Westmoreland County Housing Authority's Highland Manor

Artis receives no pay for his time and any costumes or props the troupe may need are purchased with money donated by himself, parents or generous Monessen residents. The cabaret will serve as a fund-raiser to allow the troupe to expand its inventory and hopefully generate some "seed" money to begin another drill team, Artis said Registration for the drill team will likely be announced in December.

The dancers are available for performances at schools, churches and talent shows, Artis said And, while the cabaret is being promoted as an adult activity, future events geared toward youth will be scheduled

In addition to Artis and Smith, assistant leaders of the dance troupe include Arlene Davis, Dionne Davis and Mary Hall.

A membership fee is not required but admission is $5 at the door.

Prayer vigils set at Club Erotica

ROSTRAVER TOWNSHIP — Opponents of a nude dance club say cold weather won't stop them from conducting prayer vigils at the site today and tomorrow.

Coordinated by Mon Valley for Moral Decency, a steering committee of Concerned Citizens of Rostraver Township, vigils planned at Club Erotica from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. both days will go on despite snow and cold weather.

Vigils will be preceded by prayer and instruction at Fells United Methodist Church fellowship hall at 8 p.m.

"Last week, because of the foot of snow plowed up along the side of Route 51 where we normally stand, we held two hours of prayer at Fells instead of going to the site," said Rev. Marlin Miller, pastor of Fells UMC. "But we were doing something just as effective by spending time in prayer concerning the Club Erotica situation.

"Much of this is a spiritual battle, and one of the main weapons that we have is prayer," Miller said.

The group has previously conducted two vigils at the site.

Organizers are encouraging participants to bring their cameras and candles or lanterns. Transportation will be provided from the church to the club.

The Belle Vernon Area School Board joined in the protest earlier this week when it voted to not condone this type of business in the township.

The township zoning hearing board is expected to hear comments regarding the club on Nov 28. A permanent injunction hearing date has been set for Dec. 11 in Westmoreland County Common Pleas Court.

City to petition for part of road

By DEBBE FOSTER

MONESSEN — The City of Monessen will agree to a request by the school district to assume ownership of a portion of the roadway near the new high school complex, but only if certain conditions are satisfied.

Wednesday Council agreed 4-0 to petition PennDOT to allow the city to assume ownership of the portion of State Road from Grand Boulevard to Pennsylvania Boulevard, which passes in front of the new high school. Fit ownership will only be assumed if PennDOT first repairs the roadway to meet specific standards and if the school board takes public action to guarantee they will be responsible for installing flashing lights at the intersection of the school entrance.

In introducing the motion to petition PennDOT, Councilwoman Karen Lovich noted her desire to see some form of guarantee from the school district that the lights will be installed and that the city doesn't solely bear the burden.

"The school board has the ability to raise taxes with no holds barred," Lovich said. She commented further that perhaps the school district should be more careful when planning to include everything necessary to complete a project.

"When I bought the ingredients to make my pumpkin pie, I took a list with everything I needed to the store. . .The school district needs to incorporate that concept to include the traffic signals at the new high school," she said.

"By far, it is not the responsibility of this city government to raise taxes to give the school district what they forgot to do," Lovich said

Councilman Ernest Wisyanski added he would like to see a written guarantee from PennDOT that the repairs will be made before ownership is assumed.

Mayor Robert Leone noted flashing lights have not yet been installed near the elementary school either.

Steps to be taken to demolish station

By DEBBIE FOSTER

MONESSEN — The City will take steps to demolish a vacant service station considered hazardous and unsightly in its neighborhood.

Residents of Leeds and Spruce avenues petitioned Council to take immediate action regarding the former Joe's Texaco station, which has been abandoned for several years since the death of long-time operator Joe Kessler. According to the petition, the residents believe the property creates a negative picture of the neighborhood and poses a threat to the safety and welfare of the area. They asked it to be made a priority for demolition Councilman James E. Manderino agreed the property was in dire conditions, but explained the station's current owners had asked for a permit to remodel. The permit has now expired, with no evidence of any improvement at the property, so the city will take the proper steps to begin the process for demolition, Manderino said. As soon as the owners have been given their due process through the code enforcement office and other agencies, demolition will begin, he noted.

In other business, Council:

- Noted that the work on Rex, Shaw and Linden is 95 percent complete and should be finished within the next two weeks.
- Approved a contract addendum with Mullin and Lonergan Associates Inc. for administration of the County Home Program for the 1996 program year at a cost of $4,500.
- Tabled action on a bid received from El Grande Industry Inc. for $164,900 for the Monessen Recycling Program/ Metalife Resources until the city can ask the opinion of the Department of Environmental Protection about a possible conflict of interest. The situation potentially exists because the bidding contractor — who was the sole respondent to an advertisement for bids — and the owner of Metalife are father-in-law and son-in-law. The motion to table was approved by a 3-0-1 vote, with Councilman Ernest Wisyanski abstaining due to the absence of a solicitor for advisement Councilman Ed Burdock was not present
- Thanked Herman Alvarez, owner of El Grande Industries,for donating time and equipment to roll the surface of the walking track at City Park
- Accepted the resignation of Jacqueline Yuhas as a meter maid, effective Nov. 1, to allow her to accept full-time employment elsewhere.
- Took under consideration notice from the Mon Valley Sewage Authority that the five-year term of Stephen N. Major will expire Dec. 31.
- Re-appointed Charles Zubritsky to a five-year term on the Mon Valley Refuse Disposal Authority, which will expire Dec. 31, 2001.

"The community is proud of the Greyhounds," Leone said. "All residents are asked to come out tomorrow and support the team.

"The winning tradition of Monessen sports continues this year and, as always, the athletic program has brought positive recognition to the city," he added.

The mayor, on behalf of all residents, congratulated the Greyhounds on their success to this point and wished them well tomorrow.

The vehicle then traveled across both westbound lanes, spun clockwise and came back across both lanes, again striking the guardrails

Something extra in voluntary program

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE is an important part of matriculation, but good old fashioned common sense and the ability to communicate are sometimes the real test for today's students trying to make it in the "real world."

Monessen High School has, for the past four years, conducted a program that offers real-world interview experiences to members of its graduating class. Senior Exit Interviews are conducted near the end of each school year and just prior to graduation. During the interviews, each student is teamed up with three adults from the business and residential community. This week the board attempted to turn the now-voluntary process into a mandatory one for all students.

Statistically, around 90 percent of the senior class now participates on a voluntary basis. Some school board members argued this should be reason enough to allow it to continue on a volunteer basis. Others likened making the process mandatory to putting interviews on the same level as required book reports — completed by students because they have to, but with little effort put forth.

The other side of the board argued that making the interviews mandatory would only raise the standards in the district.

Perhaps the group to ask would be the students. After all, they are the ones taking the initiative to participate — all 90 percent of them. In checking records on the program, numbers of participants have continued to rise each year. Obviously, the seniors are getting something out of the interviews.

Every student is required to take a specified number of math, English and science electives, but are given the chance to show they want something more by participating in Senior Exit Interviews. Allow the students who participate to feel the pride that comes with making a good decision. Senior Exit Interviews should remain voluntary.

Budget war: Let's get a reality check

MORTON KONDRACKE

It isn't over yet. Even though congressional Republicans and President Clinton reached agreement on getting the federal government operating again till Dec. 15, the tough budget negotiations are ahead and every opportunity still exists for a fiscal disaster

Since they agree that the federal budget ought to be balanced in seven years, the two sides could easily compromise, but for reasons of ego, vanity, and ambition, they are building their conflict into an epic struggle over political values

If they can't come to terms around the middle of December, there could be another government shutdown and the disastrous debt default that the government dodged in November.

An incurable romantic, House Speaker Newt Gingrich, R-Ga., fancies the budget fight to be "not a game of chicken but a serious, historic power struggle" in which he sees himself as Julius Caesar at the Rubicon, Horatio at the Bridge, or Boris Yeltsin confronting the Communist Party.

When I asked him the other day which of these heroes he'd liken himself to, he replied. "All of them. And Charles de Gaulle, who told the French people (in 1962) that if they didn't vote for a strong presidency, he'd retire to Colombey-les-deux-glises."

Gingrich has infected the whole GOP with an inflated sense of destiny about its seven-year balanced budget plan. Even moderate Rep. Chris Shays, R-Conn., compared the House Republicans to the Spanish conquistadors: "We've burned our ships," he said. "We have to go forward. We may be defeated. We may be victorious. But we can't go back."

For President Clinton and Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole, R-Kan., the budget fight involves something just as important as history is to Gingrich: their personal presidential ambitions.

A top White House political aide said in an interview that "what we do now (about the budget) will, in large measure, define 1996." Clinton, he said, needs to take actions that will erase his reputation for "waffling and having no backbone" and to begin defining a 1996 campaign theme of "mainstream vs. radicals."

Dole, meanwhile, needs to convince 1996 Republican primary voters that he's no mere deal-maker, but a principled follower of revolutionary Republican principles.

Each side of the budget struggle is confirmed in its intransigence by its favorite poll results. Clinton, of course, is riding high in public polls, which show that 50 percent of the country blames Republicans for the budget stalemate, while 26 percent blame the president.

Clinton's approval rating in the latest CNN/USA Today/Gallup poll was at 48 percent positive, while Dole was pulling 32 percent favorable and Gingrich was at 22 percent favorable to 64 percent unfavorable.

Now polling surely will show a further deterioration for Gingrich after his gaffe at the Sperling breakfast in declaring that the GOP budget position was hardened by his own "petty" pique at Clinton's failure to engage in negotiations aboard Air Force One on the way back from Yitzhak Rabin's funeral.

But the White House is fibbing in saying that Clinton was too busy grieving for Rabin to talk about the budget. For four hours on the return flight, Clinton played hearts with members of his party in the front of the plane while Gingrich stewed in the back.

Gingrich claims to have his own polls indicating that the public eventually will side with the GOP when it learns the facts about Republican Medicare policy, which he charges Democrats are "systematically distorting" in a negative strategy that is "morally bankrupt."

He cites a poll by Glen Bolger of Public Opinion Strategies showing that the public favors balancing the budget in seven years by a margin of 83 percent to 16 percent and by 66 percent to 22 percent favors slowing spending growth on Medicare to balance the budget.

However, even the Bolger poll shows that right now only 22 percent of voters understand that the GOP wants to increase per capita Medicare outlays from $4,800 to $6,400 per year, while 27 percent think Republicans want to cut it below $4,000 and 24 percent think they want to keep it at its current level.

At the moment, both Clinton and the Republicans are so dug in that it seems unlikely either will give until the public demonstrates total disgust with both sides. That surely will happen if a debt default occurs in mid-December.

The better alternative is for President Clinton to offer a new budget proposal showing how he'd get to balance in eight years instead of seven and reduce the growth of Medicare.

Gingrich says that the GOP budget and Clinton's June budget proposal are $847 billion apart over a seven-year period. One responsible way out is to cut spending by $425 billion over that period, splitting the difference.

Another is to settle on a one-year continuing resolution that heads toward balance while making competing balanced budget plans the key issue of the 1996 elections.

Republicans claim that they were given a mandate in 1994 to cut the size of government. But Clinton also won an election, in 1992, and has a duty to govern until January 1997.

Inevitably, the 1996 election is going to decide whether the budget is balanced in 2002 or 2005. In 1995, responsible politicians should keep the government running and get ready to put the issue to the people. Even Charles de Gaulle did that, after all.

Partnerships valuable

To the Editor:

As director of the Monessen Public Library and District Center, I offer my deepest appreciation to the partnership that has been forged into an annual fundraising effort for the library. The Friends of the Monessen Public Library, the Greek Ladies Philoptochos, the A.H.E.P.A., St. Spyridon Greek Orthodox Church and St. Spyridon Auxiliary held their fourth annual luncheon at St. Spyridon Hellenic Center, and once again the event was an unqualified success.

I also commend Isabelle Hurley for her vignettes on her career with The Valley Independent and on the area's entertainment history, especially the glory days of the Twin Coaches in Rostraver Township.

The event points out the value of partnerships to enhance the services of public libraries. They provide an essential supplement to public funding by municipal, county, state and federal government for services that improve the home, work and school-related activities of their citizens.

I urge the public to support the other fundraising efforts of the sponsors.

Instilling pride in youth

To the Editor:

This letter is directed to the L.A.M.P.E. group faculty of the Charleroi Area Elementary Center.

I would like to "thank you" for the magnificent tribute that you paid to the Veterans of World War II on Friday, Nov. 3.

From the ceremony at the stadium to the celebration at the Elks Club afterwards, everything was superbly done. As a veteran, I certainly appreciated the meaningful displays and beautiful decorations. They were great!

I personally want to thank Mrs. Suzan Mohney and her students for their art work and displays.

I also want to express my gratitude to Mr. Bob Rossi for the wonderful and very appropriate music presented by both the Lee Barrett Band and The Townsmen. The sounds of the 40s sure echoed throughout the Elks Club that night and brought back many memories.

It sure is wonderful to see that the students are being instilled with a sense of pride and respect for our country by the teachers of the L.A.M.P.E. group.

My congratulations and thanks to all of you for making Charleroi "A World War II Commemorative Town."

Understanding the 'cultural war'

WILLIAM RUSHER

It is tempting to stay focused on the details of the budget battle now being waged between the president and Congress. It is a ferocious battle, and a great deal hinges on its outcome. But it will go on for months, and meanwhile a major step has just been taken to explain what is at stake in an even bigger battle, one that will go on for decades and that will probably decide in the long run whether this country survives or not.

That bigger battle is what has come to be known as "the cultural war." The phrase is reasonably accurate, but it doesn't begin to do justice to the importance of the battle. Polls indicate that most Americans believe that the nation's deepest problems are not economic, but moral. Many political leaders, including most conservatives, would agree. The cultural war is the battle over whether, and how, to re-establish the nation's moral foundations, which many people believe are eroding.

But who are the combatants in this battle, and what, precisely, are the issues? Those are the questions that were addressed at a conference (which I had the honor to chair) sponsored early this year by the Claremont Institute. Now the Institute has issued a manifesto that summarizes the conference's conclusions. It is a major step toward a definition of the cultural war, and a powerful blow for conservative victory in that war.

The Claremont manifesto (just two typewritten pages, double-spaced) is signed by 30 of the impressive array of conservatives — political leaders, writers, and academics — that attended the conference, including former Attorney General Edwin Meese, Jersey City Mayor Bret Schundler, Hollywood critic Michael Medved, Christian Coalition executive director Ralph Reed, National Review senior editor Richard Brookhiser, Republican presidential aspirant Alan Keyes, and 11 other prominent and articulate conservatives.

It opens with the statement that this nation was founded on "a moral law", "the laws of nature and nature's God." It goes on to assert that "Our problem today consists simply in this: Many of our leaders — intellectual, cultural and political — have abandoned the moral and natural law. If we do not repudiate this error, we will suffer a collapse that is both complete and irrecoverable."

The manifesto next warns that the limitation of government "is essential for this restoration of morality.... Continued expansion of esthexe administrative state inevitably diminishes the spheres of self-governing citizenship and responsible personal morality ... We must recognize that the administrative leviathan is an enemy not only of freedom but of virtue."

But the manifesto also recognizes that "much of the work to restore America's cultural and moral health must be done outside the realm of government. Therefore, without forgetting the key role of laws in shaping civic character, we must encourage the development of a vibrant and virtuous civil society and resist the baleful influence of those who preach that there is no truth or virtue."

Of such people, the manifesto notes that "The relativists have indeed their own comprehensive moral agenda. Repugnant alike to the claims of reason and revelation, it is built upon hollow preferences or naked will. It threatens our liberty and our goodness alike, because it destroys the basis for both, and offers in their stead only dissolution and misery — underwritten by government."

The Claremont manifesto concludes: "This developing conflict over culture is a battle for the soul of America. We call upon all like-minded Americans to fight it, and to win it."

The language of the manifesto is necessarily general, but the agenda it lays down is breathtaking in its scope and specificity. It is the most powerful trumpet yet sounded in the opening stages of the final struggle for America.

No stopper, few trumps

By Phillip Alder

Last August in Ghent, Belgium, the World Bridge Federation held its first training camp for players under 25. Youngsters came from all over the world, including Botswana.

This was my favorite deal from the main pair event. How should South plan the play in four hearts, the defense beginning with three rounds of spades?

South's double was for takeout. Then, when North couldn't show a spade stopper over two spades, South did very well to bid four hearts, even though he knew they were in a 4-2 fit. (If North had three hearts, he would have bid two hearts, not two clubs.)

At the table, the declarer ruffed the third spade. Double dummy, he could still make his contract, but he didn't.

South should discard a diamond on the third spade. If West is still on lead and perseveres with a fourth spade, declarer ruffs with dummy's heart ace, discarding his second diamond loser, draws trumps and claims.

It is more likely that East wins the third trick. His only safe exit is a trump. Declarer draws four rounds of trumps, discarding diamonds from the dummy. Then he cashes dummy's two top diamonds. If the queen drops, fine. If not, he might have to guess clubs. But here that is easy. When West shows up with only one diamond, his hand has counted out: five spades, three hearts, one diamond and, therefore, four clubs.

South plays a club to his king, cashes the club ace and finesses dummy's 10 with confidence.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: One day last week, my mother went to my son's elementary school and picked "Joey" up before he got on the school bus to go home. She took him for ice cream and to play in the park.

This would have been fine with me, except for the fact that she didn't tell me she was going to do it.

I went to meet Joey's bus, and when he didn't get off I immediately rushed to his school, assuming he had been left behind.

When I didn't find him at school, the principal called the police and sent me home to wait for Joey in case he returned.

When I arrived home, I found the message my mother had left on my answering machine. Fortunately, everything turned out OK.

I told my mother that she should not have picked Joey up without telling me. She said she did tell me — by leaving a message on my machine — and it was my fault for not checking for messages sooner.

Abby, what do you say? — MAD AT MOM

DEAR MAD: I say leaving a message and assuming it would be received was a poor idea.

Your mother undoubtedly meant well, but she should not have picked up your son until she had advised you personally of her plans.

DEAR ABBY: I must take exception to your statement that people who get lost usually aren't paying attention to where they're going. Some of us were just born without an internal compass.

I can't tell you now many times I've gotten lost trying to find the ladies' room in a restaurant, or gotten lost on my way back to the table. Once, my sister ended up in the kitchen of a restaurant.

We moved a few blocks away from our old house, and when I came home from work, I got lost trying to find the new house.

My daughter and my nephew suffer from the same affliction — we call it "directional dyslexia." Maybe it's hereditary. My mother tells me that my father never knew where he was going either.

I know left from right, and up from down, but east and west befuddle me. It isn't because I'm stupid, or because someone has always chauffeured me around. I simply have no sense of where I am, direction-wise.

The words I dread are: "It's easy — you can't miss it!" Believe me, I CAN miss it, and probably will, no matter how hard I concentrate. Sign me ... LOST IN KANSAS CITY, KAN.

DEAR LOST IN KANSAS CITY: Many will appreciate your confession because they have walked a mile in your shoes — in the wrong direction. (Myself included!)

DEAR ABBY: I read with interest your answer to "Uncertain," regarding the need to tip her hairdresser, even if he or she owns the business. You said that she should tip between 10 percent and 20 percent.

My hairdresser charges $70 for a cut and blow-dry. He is not the owner (the owner charges more!). In addition, someone else shampoos me, and I tip that person a dollar or two.

Your 10 percent to 20 percent tip on top of that makes the price of the haircut more than $80.

Another factor: Some beauticians rent space from the shop's owner and give the owner a percentage of their earnings. When this is the case, the beauticians are, in effect, self-employed.

Please reconsider your answer, Abby. Perhaps the amount of the tip should depend on the price of the haircut, the hairdresser's financial arrangement with the owner, or whether the hairdresser is the owner.

Please sign me ... NO TIP AT THAT PRICE

DEAR NO TIP: Please consider my answer "reconsidered."

1996 Queen of Charity

Pageant open to young ladies

The call has gone out for young ladies between the ages of 10 and 20 who are interested in competing for titles in three 1996 Queen of Charity pageants.

The Miss Pennsylvania Queen of Charity Pageant is open to girls between the ages of 16 and 20 years.

The Junior Miss Pennsylvania Queen of Charity Pageant is open to girls between the ages of 13 and 15 years.

The Young Miss Pennsylvania Queen of Charity Pageant is open to girls between the ages of 10 and 12 years.

The latter two pageants are being held for the first time this year. Don (Cassy Jack) Casson is director of all three pageants.

There will be four areas of competition in each pageant: private interview, fundraising, evening gown and on-stage interview.

All proceeds will benefit the Washington County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Contestants in last year's Miss Pennsylvania Queen of Charity Pageant raised a total of $6,689 for the American Cancer Society and also sponsored a blood donor drive that yielded 91 pints of blood.

They visited nursing homes, rang bells for The Salvation Army, participated in the annual Cash for Kids drive sponsored by Charleroi Radio Station WESA and donated toys to The Valley Independent's annual Christmas Cheer Club.

"The pageants' sole purpose is to help young ladies with their self esteem, their confidence level and to teach them about being out in the public and caring for others," Casson said.

"The pageants are not just about a pretty face. It's about beautiful, caring young ladies who are contributing to their communities, giving something back and being proud of themselves," he said.

The pageants' staff, in turn, give the contestants an opportunity to do as much charity work as they wish or as little as they wish. No charity work is required.

"For the contestants' benefit, we also bring in different pageant winners and other people who are involved in pageants to participate in several rehearsals (not mandatory)," Casson said. "We also help the contestants perfect their interview skills by giving them sample questions so that they can get a better understanding of the process and we hold several practice interviews."

"For these pageants, we can say 'no experience is necessary' and mean it," he said. "We will get even a beginner ready for pageant day. We will teach, train and be just a phone call away for additional help."

The three pageants will take place on Jan. 27, 1996, in Monessen.

A plaque will be awarded to the contestant who scores highest in each of the four areas of competition. Plaques will also be awarded to the contestant chosen Miss Photogenic and Miss Congeniality. The contestant who raises the most money for the American Cancer Society will receive a $100 U.S. Savings Bond.

The pageant, in its first six years, has raised $24,211 for charity. When coupled with Casson's surprise birthday party to himself, the pageant and party has raised $43,293 for charity and has sponsored blood donor drives that have yielded 349 pints of blood.

Lindsay Jo Shepler, 17, of Monessen, the reigning 1995 Miss Pennsylvania Queen of Charity, will serve as Casson's assistant pageant director this year.

The new Miss Pennsylvania Queen of Charity will receive a crown, banner, one dozen roses, a four-foot-high trophy, and a check to present to her favorite charity.

In addition, she will receive a savings bond, U.S. and state flags, and magnetic name signs for her car in parades. The new queen will appear in parades, festivals, visit hospitals and schools and take part in other charity functions during the coming year.

The deadline is the first 30 applications or Sunday, Jan. 7, 1996, whichever comes first.

To ask questions about the pageants or to enter, call Casson at 379-4556 or the American Cancer Society at 222-6910.

REGAL EVENT—Lindsay Jo Shepler (right), 1995 Miss Pennsylvania Queen of Charity, discusses the 1996 pageant with Tammie Wehrle, president of the Washington County Unit of the American Cancer Society. The call has gone out for contestants.

Valley Club Notes

Mary, Mother of the Church

The Confraternity at Mary, Mother of the Church, Charleroi, is on a roll. During the November meeting, Margaret Bergstedt reported the committee she co-chairs with Margaret Barcelona had 52 hard-working helpers who rolled out and sold 18,280 ravioli during the week of Oct. 23. The same group turned out 253 quarts of sauce. By rolling dough, ravioli-making members were able to enrich the Confraternity treasury with funds that are dedicated to the Grotto of the Blessed Mother that is being completed in the restored Seventh Street Church site.

In appreciation, Vice President Carolyn Lautsch, who conducted the November meeting in the absence of President Virginia Niccolai, acknowledged all members who worked with the ravioli sale and/or the All Saint's Day spaghetti dinner.

Staff member Linda Ritzer, who coordinated the cross-and-lighted-candle remembrance of the All Soul's Day Mass for the families and friends of the 61 members of Mary, Mother of the Church, who passed away since Nov. 2, 1994, thanked the Confraternity for their support.

To mark the anniversary of member Libby Romito and her husband Adolph, Lautsch presented the traditional Rosary beads, golden silk arrangement and a bottle of champagne.

Rev. John Marcucci discussed some of the factors that had to be taken into consideration when decisions are made about space. He congratulated members for coming together united as one Confraternity of Mary, Mother of the Church.

Members were reminded of the Christmas party scheduled for Dec. 5 at the Third Street site at 6 p.m. Reservations should be made with Peggy Chacko and are binding after Nov. 29. Hosting the Christmas party will be officers and board members.

Margaret Butera is in charge of the Christmas cookie sale on Dec. 16 and 17. Members are asked to contribute three dozen cookies that will be variety boxed and sold after all Masses that weekend. Cookies should be brought to the church hall by Dec. 15 to facilitate packaging.

Mary Elizabeth Fisher's social committee kept an autumn theme with orange placemats and gingerbread crowned with a fluffy white topping for the November meeting.

Smith has Cowboys praying

FIGHT TIME — Dallas Cowboys' Michael Irvin fights with Kansas City's Dale Carter (34). Irvin caught 11 passes for 121 yards in the Cowboys' 24-12 win over the Chiefs.

IRVING, Texas (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys now have the best record in the NFL. Whether they still have the NFL's best running back remains to be seen.

After beating the Kansas City Chiefs 24-12 in a Thanksgiving Day showdown, the Cowboys now might face a more demanding test — the possibility of playing without Smith, who was wheeled off the field with a knee injury late in the third quarter.

He is to have an MRI exam today, and the entire Cowboys' organization is not about to rest easy until the preliminary diagnosis of a sprain is confirmed. Anything worse could doom a shot at another Super Bowl.

"I just pray to the good Lord my man is OK," said running backs coach Joe Brodsky.

Dallas ended Kansas City's seven-game winning streak and a chance to clinch a playoff berth with the big win, giving both teams identical 10-2 records, but Smith's injury made for one gloomy locker room.

"Emmitt thinks the knee is going to be OK," said Dallas coach Barry Switzer.

Dallas also lost center Ray Donaldson, who will undergo surgery today for a broken ankle.

"Losing Ray and Emmitt are big losses," said Dallas quarterback Troy Aikman.

Dallas improved to 10-2 while the Chiefs, off to their best start, dropped to 10-2 in a clash of the teams with the best NFL records.

When Smith missed the first two games of the 1994 season in a contract dispute with owner Jerry Jones, the Cowboys lost both games. Jones settled with Smith and the Cowboys went on to win the Super Bowl.

Smith, the NFL's leading

runner, has had nine 100-yard rushing games this year. Bothered by hamstring injuries last year, he had been injury free this season.

But with 1:24 left in the third quarter, Smith went down without being tackled while trying to make a cutback on the artificial turf.

"Emmitt has made that cut 1,000 times," said offensive tackle Nate Newton. "This time the knee didn't hold up. It just shakes you."

Smith was walking in the locker room after the game. Trainer Kevin O'Neill called that a "positive sign. Still, we don't know exactly what is wrong until we have an MRI on Friday. We're calling it a sprain until we find out something different."

Smith rushed for 56 yards and scored a touchdown on a 15-yard run before he was injured. Aikman threw two touchdown passes of 33 yards each to tight end Jay Novacek and Michael Irvin.

"We've done a good job of bouncing back from our loss to San Francisco and we feel great about our position but we have a big concern about Emmitt," Aikman said. "We'll just have to keep our fingers crossed.

"I've had a sprained knee and I know it was hard to come back, and I can imagine how hard it is for a running back. (Substitute back) Sherman Williams is a good player, but we're a much better team with Emmitt in there. We'll just have to fight through it."

Kansas City's only touchdown came on a 45-yard pass from Steve Bono to Lake Dawson.

"This was a tough loss because we didn't show our true selves," said Bono. "But there's no question that Dallas is the best team. And they've been able to maintain that level for several years now."

Smith's touchdown run was his 21st of the year, just three behind John Riggins' NFL season record.

Irvin caught 11 passes for 121 yards, and Aikman hit 21 of 29 passes for 192 yards.

"Nobody does it better than Aikman and Irvin," said Kansas City coach Marty Schottenheimer. "You can talk about Rice and Young but when it comes down to timing, nobody does it better than those two.

"Dallas was clearly the better team. We couldn't stop their offense. When Aikman gets his rhythm going he's hard to disrupt. Dallas is a great team."

The lucky thing for the Cowboys is that they have 10 days to get ready for their next opponent, the Washington Redskins, whom the play Dec. 3 at Texas Stadium. The Redskins beat Dallas 27-23 on Oct. 1.

Madison Square Garden to get Moorer-Foreman

Madison Square Garden in New York will be the site of the long-rumored rematch between heavyweight Monessen's Michael Moorer and George Foreman.

The Daily News reported Thursday that a deal was all but completed Wedneday to hold the fight Feb. 29.

The rematch would head an all-heavyweight card planned by promoter Bob Arum and aimed at pay-per-view TV.

Foreman, who turns 47 in January, knocked out Moorer last November to win the IBF and WBA heavyweight titles and become the oldest heavyweight champion in history. But he since has been stripped of both.

The Garden has set out to regain at least some of its glory as a boxing mecca, and would like to have a major event to commemorate the 25th anniversary in March of the first Muhammad Ali-Joe Frazier fight.

John Cirillo, the arena's senior vice president, said two months ago that Foreman "had shown keen interest in fighting his last hurrah in the Garden."

Foreman last fought on April 22 when he took a majority decision over little-known Axel Schulz of Germany in a fight many thought Foreman lost. He later refused to give Schulz a rematch and was stripped of his titles.

ONE MORE TIME — Monessen's Michael Moorer is expected to fight George Foreman again Feb. 29 at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Arum, who promoted the fight, said Foreman wanted only one more bout before going into his second retirement, and felt he owed Moorer the shot.

Lions hold off Vikings

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — The word around the NFL used to be that if you stop Barry Sanders, you stop the Detroit Lions. That may not be true any more.

Minnesota held Sanders to just 1 yard in the first half Thursday. By then, however, Scott Mitchell had thrown three touchdown passes.

Mitchell finished with record numbers and the Lions held on for a 44-38 victory over the Vikings.

And, guess what? Sanders got his numbers anyway. He finished with 138 yards on 24 carries, including a 50-yard touchdown scamper that gave the Lions a 10-point lead with 5:18 left in the game.

"Everyone, when they talk about the Lions, it's, 'Stop Barry Sanders,'" tackle Lomas Brown said. "The thing is now we're making big plays we didn't make earlier, and that's why we're winning some football games."

The Lions (6-6) also were aided by the first mistakes in almost a month by Warren Moon. Moon, who turned 39 last Saturday, hadn't thrown an interception in his last four games. But he was picked off twice by the Lions and each was costly to Minnesota (6-6).

"This is really disappointing," Moon said. "We made enough plays to win it. We just hurt ourselves with mistakes."

With the Vikings stacking sometimes eight men at the line of scrimmage, Mitchell completed 30 of 45 passes for 410 yards and four TDs with one interception. Along the way, he shattered Bobby Layne's single-game record of 374 yards which had stood since 1950.

Mitchell also broke Gary Danielson's club records for both completions (252 in 1984) and attempts (417 in 1980) in a season. Mitchell has completed 259 of 440 for 3,150 yards and 23 TDs so far this season.

"We're going in every week and realizing people are going to play us differently because of Barry," Mitchell said. "We took what they gave us. We did an excellent job of blocking up front, our receivers were open and we played a sound football game all around."

Mitchell was masterful in spreading the ball around. Herman Moore, thrown in on defense for the Vikings' last drive, caught eight passes for 127 yards, Brett Perriman tied a club record with 12 catches for 153 yards, and Johnnie Morton caught seven for 102 yards.

Moon's first interception led to Mitchell's 27-yard touchdown pass to Moore late in the third quarter. That gave Detroit a 34-31 lead the Lions didn't relinquish.

Moon's second interception came on the final play of the game when he just missed on a desperation pass to Cris Carter in the end zone.

Moon completed 30-of-47 passes for 384 yards and three touchdowns. He has 14 touchdown tosses in his last four games. Jake Reed had six receptions for a season-high 149 yards.

"I don't know if I have been in a game like this since grade school," Moon said. "I've been in games that were this high-scoring, but never when there were three touchdowns taken off the board. This could have been a 100-point game."

The Vikings had two touchdowns nullified by penalties. The Lions lost one to a penalty.

Mitchell threw touchdowns of 2 and 20 yards Perriman, a 16-yarder to Morton and a 27-yard strike to Moore. Jason Hanson kicked field goals of 32, 40 and 39 yards for Detroit.

Moon hooked up with Reed for a 55-yard scoring play and threw scoring passes of 10 and 7 yards to Carter.

The Vikings got two TDs in a span of 14 seconds from special teams in the second quarter. David Palmer returned a punt 74 yards for a score and, on the ensuing kickoff, Orlando Thomas romped in from 17 yards out with a recovered fumble.

Fuad Reveiz added a 49-yard field goal for the Vikings, who saw their three-game winning streak snapped.

"We had plenty of offense, we just needed some poise," Vikings coach Dennis Green said. "Our total team pass defense failed. You have to be able to sack the quarterback, and we let him sit in there and get comfortable."

But part of the reason for that was Sanders.

"They have a great scheme and a lot of weapons," Vikings defensive coordinator Tony Dungy said. "You have to stop Barry, and that means giving them a chance to hurt you outside with those receivers. At the end, we had to blitz to stop the pass, and Barry hit us with a couple big runs."

Monessen, Farrell mayors make bets

By JEFF OLIVER

MONESSEN — Monessen Mayor Bob Leone isn't betting the house on the Monessen Greyhounds when they meet Farrell Saturday in the WPIAL Class A championship game at Three Rivers Stadium.

But he is, nevertheless, betting the Hounds will win.

Leone and Farrell Mayor Eugene Pacsi formalized a friendly bet between the communities on the result of the contest between the Greyhounds (11-1) and Steelers (11-1).

Leone is betting homemade pasta, marinara sauce, red roasted peppers, biscotti and supersaut that the Greyhounds will win the game and the championship.

Pacsi is countering with a gallon of Italian peppers, a case of locally produced pop and a sampling of locally produced candy.

"We talked a couple of times on the phone before we finalized our bets," said Leone.

Does the Monessen mayor like his hometown team's chances of winning Saturday?

"I will tell you it's a bet I have no intention of paying off," he smiled. "What does that tell you?"

Valley people treated like VIPs at opera

Surprises are sometimes delightful; sometimes they are devastating.

A group of Mon Valley folks arriving in Pittsburgh to attend the opera at the Benedum had a very delightful surprise awaiting them.

As the bus pulled in at the theatre and the opera fans prepared to enjoy an evening with "Der Rosen Kavalier," they noticed several women holding bouquets of red roses in the area. As the Valley folks got off the bus, each was presented with a single beautiful red rose and greeted with "Welcome to Der Rose Kavalier." The surprised group continued into the theatre lobby and was greeted by a placard announcing the evening's performance was dedicated to the Mon Valley Chapter of the Pittsburgh Opera Association. As the first strains of the opera sounded, there was another "welcome" to the chapter as the optrans floated above stage.

All of a sudden the Mon Valley delegation became a delegation of "very important people," and it was a great feeling throughout the evening.

For the past 15 years, the Mon Valley Chapter, under the direction of Robert Natalini, has been alive and active in the area. They have provided opera, operalogues, concerts, and various cultured events.

ISABELLE HURLEY

Area high school students were entertained with programs and concerts and trips to Pittsburgh to attend opera dress rehearsals. I had the pleasure of attending a performance of "Aida" with a group from Belle Vernon and it was a wonderful experience.

Ruth Corrin, special events coordinator, has avidly implemented many supporting programs like the Civic Light Opera, trips to the Chautaqua Music Festival, Metropolitan Opera, and other events. A few years ago the Camerata from Saint Vincent College performed in the Valley and was very well received and from time to time other appearances have attracted the opera fans. But none was more delightful than being VIPs for an evening, thanks to Tito and the Opera Ladies Auxiliary.

My thanks to Pauline Kutska who shared her evening's experiences with me. She also pointed out that new members are welcomed into the association.

CURTAIN AT EIGHT — The curtain will be raised every performance at 8 p.m. for the Community College of Allegheny County South Campus Theatre, 1750 Clairton Rd. (Route 88), West Mifflin, near Century III Mall, production of "Inspecting Carol." It will be presented Friday and Saturday, Dec. 1-2, 8-9, 15-16 and Thursdays, Dec. 7 and 14. The latter date is already sold out.

A capsule description of the presentation tells of a small theatre company in rehearsal for the annual production of "A Christmas Carol" and not one thing is going well. The arrival of a misidentified gentleman adds to the dilemma and Charles Dickens never had so much fun.

The cast includes Aaron Bernard (Brad), Joe Clement (Phil), Matt Commander (Spike), Jack Goldstein (Sidney), Ted Hoover (Kevin), Rebecca Hunt (M.J.), Renee Ann Neil (Zorah), Doug Mertz (Larry), Nardi Novak (Dorothy), Scott Nunnally (Walter), Joe Schulz (Wayne), Mike Swartzendruber (Luther), and Kathleen Geletko and Mary Jane Lazenga will double as Betty.

Scott Lee DeNier will direct and George J. Jaber is producer. He also did scenic design, Mary Vehee and Jennifer Ford were co-lighting design directors, and Don DiFonzo was in charge of costumes.

'INSPECTING CAROL' — When "Inspecting Carol" is performed at the CCAC South Campus Theatre Dec. 1-2, 7-9, 14-16, the following will be featured: Center — Joe Schulz (Wayne); clockwise from left — Renee Ann Keil (Zorah), Rebecca Hunt (M.J.), Joe Clement (Phil), Nardi Novak (Dorothy), and Doug Mertz (Larry).

Tickets are $9; seniors, $8, and children, $5. Group rates re available and dinner theatre is available Fridays and Saturdays. Add an additional $8 to the cost of the theatre ticket. Call 469-6220 for tickets and info.

WE CELEBRATED A BIRTHDAY — Our friend Josephine Fayak had a birthday last Sunday and her son Carl, daughter Carla and granddaughter Michael Bogden had a little dinner party for her at La Eda's. Eight friends were present for good food, fun, and gifts for Jo. It was her second party. The night before, the Fayak women had a dinner at Lower Level and also marked Jo's big day. We celebrated first last Thursday when our club met at Rose Kander's and we surprised Jo with a homemade angel food cake and more fun. I'm not sure how many more parties there will be because Judy Kornosky, Jo and I always celebrate for at least a week.

Cleveland move for Seahawks?

SEATTLE (AP) — The majority owner of the Seattle Seahawks warned that he might move the team to another city if it doesn't get a new stadium, and said Cleveland was among the cities to offer a new home.

"Now Cleveland is offering the same as Baltimore gave to the Cleveland Browns," Ken Behring said, without going into specifics. Nancy Lesic, a spokeswoman for Cleveland Mayor Michael R. White, said that was "absurd."

O'Donnell among NFL honorees

NEW YORK (AP) — San Francisco quarterback Elvis Grbac, who will be replaced this week because Steve Young is healthy, was selected NFC offensive player of the week.

Grbac was 31 of 41 for 382 yards and four touchdowns in the 49ers' 44-20 victory over Miami on Monday night. San Francisco kicker Jeff Wilkins and Philadelphia defensive end Mike Mamula also were honored in the NFC.

Pittsburgh quarterback Neil O'Donnell was selected in the AFC along with Seattle defensive back Robert Blackmon and Denver kick returner Glyn Milburn.

Chicago sweetens pot to keep Bears

CHICAGO (AP) — Gov. Jim Edgar sweetened the pot for keeping the Chicago Bears in Chicago, offering $28 million to improve the area around Soldier Field if the team agrees not to leave.

Bears president Mike McCaskey is weighing an offer from Gary, Ind., which has proposed a $482 million stadium complex Edgar said Mayor Richard M Daley has made the best offer for the team — $156 million to renovate Soldier Field.

Johnson ending racing career

CHARLOTTE, N.C, (AP) — Junior Johnson is leaving behind his 40-year career in stock-car racing and has sold his two racing teams, published reports say.

The 64-year-old Johnson sold one of his teams to Brett Bodine, who drove for him last season, The Charlotte Observer reported Thursday, citing an unidentified source. The other team went to Arkansas lawyer David Blair.

Johnson won 50 races as a driver and 139 as an owner. He began fielding his own cars in 1955, and in the late 1970s and early 1980s was the top car owner on the NASCAR circuit. Cale Yarborough won championships for Johnson 1977 through 1979, and Darrell Waltrip in 1981-82 and 1985.

The newspaper said Bodine purchased the No. 11 car driven by Yarborough and Waltrip for a price estimated at $3 million to $5 million.

"The deal has been rumored for a long time, but it didn't go through until today (Wednesday) because today's the day they closed on the real estate," The Observer's source said.

Meanwhile, The Greenville (S.C.) News reported that Bodine had assumed "an equity position" in the Winston Cup team. It said team spokesman Dean Kessell refused to divulge details.

The No. 27 car was sold to Bob Brooks of the Hooters restaurant chain, which sponsored the ride. Brooks immediately resold the team to Blair.

"We decided we're more suited for the restaurant business than car ownership," said Hooters spokesman Craig Hoover.

Since the departure of Yarborough and Waltrip, now both car owners themselves, Johnson's cars have just 16 victories. With Bodine, Loy Allen and Elton Sawyer behind the wheel in 1995, Johnson's Ford Thunderbirds were winless for the second time in three seasons.

Johnson's cars won at least one race from 1967 through 1992.

Johnson's Wilkes County shops were included in the sale to Bodine, who intends to remain behind the wheel, The Observer said. Bodine plans to move the shop to nearby Mooresville.

California remains unbeaten

Mansfield is the next stop for California University's unbeaten women basketballers.

The Lady Vulcans will be facing Daemen (N.Y.) Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Mansfield tournament after clobbering Point Park, 99-49, Wednesday night to up their record to 3-0.

Philadelphia Pharmacy and the host team will fill out the Mansfield four-team field over the weekend.

Nichole Johker topped the Lady Vulcans with 19 points followed by Kim Paciorek (17), Heather Jordan (15) and Dodi Chapman (14).

"It was an ugly game but we learned a lesson and it was an experience," said first-year California coach Tom Kendall. "We knew Point Park was injured coming in and it was also the night before Thanksgiving. What we learned was to play on discipline and to play hard no matter what."

Melissa Charles had 14 points for the Lady Pioneers, now 1-4

Firsts for Lemieux, Penguins

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mario Lemieux did something he hadn't done all season and so did the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Lemieux played on consecutive nights for the first time since he started his comeback, and the Penguins lost two straight games for the first time this season.

Mike Richter stopped 40 shots and Wayne Presley scored a pivotal shorthanded goal to lead the New York Rangers to a 4-3 win over Pittsburgh on Wednesday. A night earlier, the Rangers won 9-4 in New York.

"Two big wins but I'm not going to get too excited about it," Rangers captain Mark Messier said. "It's still only November."

Coach Colin Campbell agreed and he was more relieved than elated at the outcome of the series. After the home-and-home series with Pittsburgh, the Rangers' next two games are against Detroit and New Jersey, the teams that reached the Stanley Cup Finals last season. Before playing the Penguins, the Rangers had been winless in three games (0-2-1).

"I was a nervous guy looking at this stretch," Campbell said. "You're hovering around a deep hole. All of a sudden you start to sweat because you might be looking at a seven-game stretch without a win. Even if you play well against these teams, you still might not beat them."

The key to Wednesday's win was Richter, who had been just 4-13-1 in his career against Pittsburgh before the two games. Messier said Richter was fundamentally sound as the Penguins registered a 43-28 advantage in shots.

"This was the best game I've seen him play this year as far as standing in front of net and holding his position," Messier said. "There were zero rebounds. He was in complete control. This was the kind of game we needed."

With all the offensive stars on both teams, the biggest goal belonged to Presley, who hadn't scored one in 20 games. The momentum had shifted Pittsburgh's way late in the second period, as it pulled within one and had a power-play chance.

Defenseman Kevin Lowe knocked the puck ahead in the offensive zone. Presley caught up to it and beat Ken Wregget for the goal that eventually won the game.

"The shorthanded goal was the difference," Pittsburgh coach Eddie Johnston said.

"We have enough goal scorers here," Presley said. "If I can chip in with one or two, that's a big bonus."

There was very little flow to the game because there were so many penalties. The Rangers had 10 power plays and Pittsburgh nine.

The Penguins didn't have enough to suit Johnston, who said referees are letting some infractions go. Johnston said that because their power play is so dominant, referees are hesitant to give the Penguins a man advantage unless they absolutely have to. He said general manager Craig Patrick should take up the matter with the NHL.

"We get penalized because of our power play," Johnston said. "It's been repeated in the last few games. Mr. Patrick will address the situation."

Lemieux scored his league-leading 18th goal and added an assist and said he felt fine after the game. He said he was able to maintain his energy level throughout.

Michigan State coach turning to crowd

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan State coach Nick Saban has a wish for Saturday's season finale against Penn State — other than a victory, of course.

He wants noise. Lots of it.

"The first thing I want to be is a salesman," Saban said at his weekly news conference early this week.

"We need 8,000 students to come to the game this week so they can cheer and create the kind of atmosphere we had in the Michigan game, because that will help us win the game."

"It's going to be very challenging for us," Saban said. "We're going to have to be very physical and aggressive in this game.

"The atmosphere might help us maintain that for the game."

The Spartans have a lot to shoot for in the Penn State game. The two teams are playing for third place in the Big Ten and MSU also has its eyes on a good postseason bowl bid.

"This is a big game," Saban said. "It's clear to everyone what's at stake — Michigan State and Penn State playing for third place in the Big Ten."

"The crowd will be important this weekend. We need everyone to turn out and be the 12th man. The crowd could make a real difference, like it did in the Michigan game."

With the crowd roaring behind, the Spartans won that game 28-25. They now have four wins in the last five games, a 6-3-1 overall record and a 4-2-1 Big Ten record. It, too, is eying a bowl invitation.

The high-powered Nittany Lions are averaging 426.4 yards in total offense and 33.2 points a game, both good for second in the Big Ten. They are led by a trio of tailbacks who split the rushing load — freshman Curtis Enis, senior Mike Archie and senior Stephen Pitts.

Junior quarterback Wally Richardson has hit for 169 passes in 290 attempts, good for 1,978 yards and 16 touchdowns.

"They have so many good running backs, which makes them difficult to prepare for," Saban said. "One week it's Archie who runs well, the next it's Enis, and this week (against Michigan) Pitts had a career-high game.

"And, of course, everybody knows about Engram and Scott," he said, referring to wide receivers Bobby Engram — 55 catches — and Freddie Scott — 32 catches.

Michigan State, meanwhile, is led by quarterback Tony Banks — 113 of 181 passes for 1,499 yards and eight touchdowns — and tailback Marc Renaud, who is averaging 102 yards a game.

But it is the Spartan defense that worried Penn State coach Joe Paterno.

"They play with three linebackers who really can run," he said. "The secondary is outstanding. Right now they're a very good defensive football team. It will be a real dogfight on the line of scrimmage."

As one of their projects to the community, they are organizing a special promotion, with giveaways. A giant Christmas stocking will be awarded to one lucky West Newton shopper. Pictured holding gifts for the season are (from left) Patrick Alberts, vice president; Lois Powala, treasurer; Marcy Berestecki, president; Sally Taylor, membership chairperson; Michele L. Simmons, board member; and Maryann Bingey, board member.

Business Association ready for holidays

By ELIZABETH HORNE

WEST NEWTON — Behind every successful organization are a group of dedicated officers, and the West Newton Area Business Association holds true to the rule.

The current slate of officers will finish their one-year term on Dec. 14, when new officers will be elected and installed. The event will take place during a dinner at the Main Course.

Before the 1995 officers step down, however, they still have a few more projects to finish.

According to Marcy Berestecki, president, WNABA is gearing up for its Christmas promotion. This year's promotion involves the entire community, with a give-away of $25 gift certificates, as well as a giant Christmas stocking.

Berestecki said the community is welcome to register at any West Newton merchant for the drawings of five $25 gift certificates and the stocking, which is filled with donations from local businesses.

The promotion is geared to getting people to shop in West Newton.

Drawings will take place Saturday, Dec. 23.

Kicking off the holiday season in the borough are open houses at Tull's Florist and The Flower Depot. These open houses will be held Saturday, Nov. 25 and Sunday, Nov. 26. Light-Up Night has been planned for Saturday, Nov. 25, as well, in the borough. The community is encouraged to get involved and enjoy both of the events.

The local business association remains busy throughout the year, with a student ad contest for children in grade five at Yough School District, an open house in February or March to kick off the new year of projects and a directory of West Newton, which is circulated to current residents and new residents. This past year the business association also produced a brochure listing the recreation available in West Newton and has continued with cooperative advertising with local papers to get the word about West Newton and its businesses out to the rest of the Mid-Mon Valley.

One of the latest projects, which benefits not only local merchants, but all Youghiogheny River Trail users, is a sign that was placed at the trail head in the borough. The business association leases the sign from the trail and have put together a map of West Newton, surrounded by businesses, each pinpointed on the map. This allows trail users easy access to West Newton for a quick luncheon or meal, as well as any other sundry items they might need. Any proceeds from the sign that exceed the costs will be used by WNABA to purchase a bike rack for the trail.

The 1995 slate of WNABA officers include the following: Marcy Berestecki, president; Patrick Alberts, vice president; Lois Powala, treasurer; Darlene Crawford, secretary; Sally Taylor and Maryann Bingey, both one year executive board members; Mike Schmidt and Dee Taylor, both two year executive board members; and Michele Simmons, who is representing the past president Bill Simmons.

When the lights go on Saturday night, during the annual Light Up Night festivities, West Newton is sure to be ready for the community to stop by and enjoy its friendly hospitality.

The public is also invited to a concert by the West Newton Community Singers. Concerts will take place at the Presbyterian Church, Main Street, at 8 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 1 and Saturday, Dec. 2. Both concerts are open to the public.

Comic actor Peter Sellers was teamed with screen goddess Sophia Loren in 1960's movie adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's "The Millionairess." The collaboration also yielded a hit record — taken from the soundtrack, the duet "Goodness Gracious Me" was a Top-Five hit in Great Britain!
One of Sellers' most memorable characters was the bumbling Inspector Clouseau — name the movies in which Sellers portrayed the inept detective.
Answers: "The Pink Panther," "A Shot in the Dark," "The Return of the Pink Panther," "The Pink Panther Strikes Again," "Revenge of the Pink Panther" plus the posthumously created and released "The Trail of the Pink Panther."

AITKEN: In loving memory of our beloved son, brother & uncle, Kevin B. Aitken, who passed away 4 years ago today, November 24, 1991.
You bade no one a last farewell
You said goodbye to none,
Your loving heart had ceased to beat
Before we knew that you had gone.
Your cheerful smile and kindly ways
We pleasantly recall,
You had kind words for everyone
And died beloved by all.
On earth is grief, in Heaven rest,
We miss you most who loved you best.
We Love You, Kevin. Wish you could come home again.
Sadly missed & loved by Mother, Father, Sisters, Brothers, Nieces & Nephews.

BARCUS: A Birthday Tribute today, November 24, in loving memory of our beloved husband, father & grandfather, Henry Barcus, Sr.
We're sending birthday wishes
In care of Heaven above,
For it's the birthday
Of the precious one we love.
There'll be for him no birthday cake
Or lovely presents given.
But our prayers and our love
We'll send to him
In care of God in Heaven.
Sadly missed & loved by your wife Barb, Children, Grandchildren & Great-grandson.

BARRON: In loving memory of our husband and father, Bernard Barron of Champion, PA who passed away November 24, 1994 - Born November 24, 1917.
We're sending birthday wishes,
In care of Heaven above
For it's the birthday
Of the precious one we love.
There'll be no birthday cake
Or lovely presents given
But our prayers and love we'll send
In care of God in Heaven.
Angels gathered around God's throne,
Please sing "Happy Birthday" to our dear one.
So he won't feel as though he's gone.
Sadly missed by wife Mildred & daughter Bernadette & son Dick.

BARRON: In loving memory of my husband, Bernard Barron of Champion, PA who passed away November 24, 1994.
My heart still aches with sadness
Secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.
When days are sad & lonely
And everything goes wrong
I seem to hear you whisper
Cheer up and carry on.
Each time I see your picture
You seem to smile and say
Don't cry, I'm only sleeping
We'll meet again someday.
Sadly missed by wife Mildred.

BARRON: In loving memory of our father, Bernard Barron of Champion, PA who passed away November 24, 1994.
We lost a Dad with a heart of gold
Who is more to us than wealth untold.
Without farewell he fell asleep
With only memories for us to keep.
We have lost, but God has gained
One of the best fathers the world contained.
Sadly missed by daughter Bernadette & son Dick.

Dulla wins excellence award

Each year, Brownsville General Hospital employees participate in a nationwide healthcare Quorum of Excellence Program, which is sponsored by the Quorum Health Group of Nashville, Tenn

Nomination into the Quorum of Excellence Program is determined on two major categories: personal excellence as exemplified by the individual's respect for people, service to others and commitment to improving the world around them; and professional excellence by their caliber of work and dedication to improving the quality of healthcare in their hospital.

A unique feature of this program is that fellow employees nominate individuals whom they feel meet these criteria. Robert J. Dulla Jr. was nominated this year. In addition to an award plaque and a monetary award, he becomes a nominee for the National Quorum of Excellence Award competition These individuals will be selected to receive national recognition

Dulla is a graduate of Brownsville High School He joined BGH in 1989 and is responsible for all pre-hospital certification and coordination, community outreach programs and is the hospital liaison to the California University of Pennsylvania Garofola Health Center.

He resides in Republic with his wife, Laura.

Marsh Tire marks 50 years in business

CHARLEROI — Marsh Tire, located at 204 Lincoln Ave extension, Charleroi, is marking 50 years in business in 1995.

The business was begun in 1945 by Albert Mollis and Joe Stankiewicz Albert's son; Kevin, took over the business in the early 1980s, at about the time that Stankiewicz passed away. Kevin Mollis continues to run Marsh Tire, but Albert Mollis still remains active at the business. .

This has been a very good year at Marsh Tire and the business is expanding. About two years ago, the business purchased some adjoining land and in the spring will begin construction of five additional bays to service its customers even quicker.

The business will likely then separate its mechanical work from its car tire service. But Marsh Tire will continue to offer its customers the lowest prices on all tires with no add-on costs.

Of the 150 jobs in Conrail's local management office, 75 — mostly dispatchers — will be transferred to other divisions, 50 jobs will remain and 21 jobs will be eliminated.

The Harrisburg division covers an area from Pottstown to Johnstown and Buffalo, N.Y to Washington, D C Conrail also has divisions based in Indianapolis, Ind. and Dearborn, Mich.

"These and other evolving changes at Conrail grew out of our strategic business plan and are critical in repositioning the company for the future by making better use of its assets," said David M. LeVan, Conrail's president and chief operating officer.

Conrail said the changes will allow a better balance of work among the remaining dispatching offices, reduce train handoffs between divisions, improve planning of traffic flows and would mean less "deadheading" and away-from-home time for train and engine crews.

WPIAL PLAYOFF FINALS

BVA ALL THE WAY?

No. 1 Leps seek first title

By BRIAN HERMAN

Okay, Belle Vernon Area High football fans.

Here's a little warning from Gary Dongilli, the head coach of the Leps.

Wait until AFTER the Leps play Franklin Regional Saturday at 5 p.m. at Three Rivers Stadium for the WPIAL Class AAA crown to do any celebrating.

Although BVA is the favorite, Dongilli isn't so sure

"Being the top-seed doesn't mean a thing," he claimed on the eve of the Leps' first WPIAL title appearance.

"Anything can happen in the playoffs."

"They're bigger and stronger than us," he went on. "My biggest concern is their size. They will definitely give us problems."

Dongilli is referring to the Panthers' offensive line which averages 235 pound topped by 6-5, 294-pound sophomore right tackle Ryan Scarola.

With only one starter returning on the offensive line, second-year Franklin Regional coach Greg Botta thought his team would have problems early.

The Panthers did.

In its first three games, Franklin Regional managed only one touchdown, a 33-yard pitch from quarterback Kevin Shrout to tailback Rob Posa in an opening 10-0 win over Quad A Greensburg Salem.

The next two weeks the Panthers were blanked by Blackhawk and Southmoreland by identical 14-0 scores to take a 1-2 record into the Greater Allegheny Conference.

It wasn't until the Panthers posted back-to-back wins over Kittanning (22-13) and Valley (14-6) in mid-season that the Murrysville school started thinking playoffs and went on to win its first conference crown.

"The biggest question mark was our line and they came through midway in the season," claimed Botta.

The Panthers' lone setback in their last nine games was a 17-7 defeat to Quad South champ Penn-Trafford.

Franklin Regional averaged an impressive 33 points in its final three conference wins before downing Moon, 21-0, and No. 2 Montour, 2-0, in the playoffs

What happened to the Panthers' offense against Montour, which had been ranked No. 1 until losing its regular season finale to Moon?

"Our timing was off against Montour because we couldn't get outside for practice that week because of the weather," noted Botta.

The Panthers are led offensively by 6-2, 204-pound senior signal caller Shrout and Posa, a 6-2, 188 pound senior who's run for over 700 yards.

Dongilli is impressed with Shrout, who shows seven touchdown passes.

"He has one of the better passing arms we'll see," he said.

While Dongilli is high on the Panthers, the feeling is mutual to Botta when it comes to the Leps.

"They're as good as any team I've seen," he said. "I like the way they fly around the football on defense."

Botta is also concerned with Jason Murray, the Leps' junior tailback who's run for a WPIAL-high 1,919 yards and 17 touchdowns.

"Murray reminds me a lot of Brian Chizmar who I coached at Swissvale," he claimed, referring the WPIAL's ninth all-time leading rusher with 4,544 yards.

"He has a strong lower legs and upper body," he explained. "He's difficult to tackle and sees the field very well. You just can't give him a crack."

Besides Murray, the Panthers have to worry about the quarterback tandem of senior Ed Weightman and Jason Nogy, who've combined for almost 900 yards running and passing

Weightman has run for 219 yards and completed 14 of 51 passes for 189 yards and six TDs while Nogy shows 202 yards on the ground and 283 in the air on 18 of 33.

Inside linebacker R.J. Pabis leads the defense with 184 tackles including 79 solos. Weightman, the other inside linebacker, is second with 102 including 49 solos and six quarterback sacks.

Outside linebacker Justin Quinto is the team's sack leader with eight while the other outside linebacker, Ron Krepps, has a team-high 14 pressure sacks

Dongilli is expecting a low-scoring affair.

"It's going to be a defensive battle," he smiled

******

LEFTOVERS — The Leps' defense has allowed 30 points in two playoff games after giving up only 30 points in 10 games during the regular campaign. The Leps are averaging almost three interceptions a game. The leaders are Bret Kalakewich (five), Weightman (four) and Chaz Glasser (four). Nose guard Adam Spitznagel has a team-high five fumble recoveries.

BRIAN'S PICK'S

Murray, defense add up for Leps

Justin Quinto (58) and Ben Keefer (33) are among the standouts on Belle Vernon Area's defense.

Valley Independent photo by Joe Amon

I'm expecting to leave Three Rivers Stadium Saturday night with a lot better feeling than the one I had the last time I covered a high school football game there.

It was back in 1972 that I sat in on Monessen's 14-14 deadlock with Jeannette in the WPIAL playoffs.

The tie was the same as a loss for the Greyhounds since there was no overtime in those days.

The tie-breaker in the WPIAL playoffs then was the most total offense yards, rushing and passing.

And the Greyhounds' chances of outgaining the Jayhawks probably disappeared in the second quarter when coach Joe Gladys' star running back, Milfred (Bubby) Holmes, went out with an injury and never returned.

Driving home from Pittsburgh that November day in 1972 left an empty feeling since I felt the Greyhounds would have won with Holmes on the field and not in the hospital.

Twenty-three years later, the Greyhounds return to Three Rivers for their first title shot since 1961. About three hours later, Belle Vernon Area will be playing in its first championship game ever.

BRIAN HERMAN
Sports Editor

I wish I could predict the Greyhounds and Leps both coming home winners. I can't.

The think Belle Vernon Area will come home a winner but look for Monessen to be looking back at a heartbreaking defeat.

Here's the way I see Saturday's championships:

Belle Vernon Area over Franklin Regional: The difference is BVA's defense and junior tailback Jason Murray, who needs 81 yards to become the first back in the school's history to run for 2,000 yards in a season.

The first and third quarters should be interesting since Franklin Regional hasn't allowed a point in the opening period and BVA is unscored on in the third quarter.

The Leps just have too many weapons for the Panthers. Stop Murray and you still have to worry about quarterbacks Ed Weightman and Jason Nogy and other backs like Ben Keefer and Nick Norelli.

BVA's quickness on defense should outweigh the Panthers' size advantage.

Dongilli compares the Panthers' big line to Ringgold's and the Rams didn't score against the Leps.

Farrell over Monessen: Both teams boast strong defenses. Offense gives the edge to the Steelers, who've risen to the occasion in big games with two victories over Western Beaver in the past three weeks.

It doesn't hurt that Farrell is no stranger to Three Rivers Stadium with coach Lou Falconi taking teams there three times in the previous eight years.

The Greyhounds could have an emotional letdown after last week's emotional overtime victory over No. 1 Riverview.

Penn Hills over Upper St. Clair: The Panthers

BV Area: Bad start — good ending

By BRIAN HERMAN
Sports Editor

First impressions can be misleading.

Take the case of Belle Vernon Area High's 1995 football team, for instance.

The Leopards, coached for the second year by Gary Dongilli, opened the campaign with a 15-0 defeat at Thomas Jefferson.

Twelve weeks later, the Leps haven't lost another game and will be playing Franklin Regional Saturday for the WPIAL Class AAA championship.

Here's a game-by-game look on the Leps' road to Three Rivers Stadium:

T. Jefferson 15, BVA 0

Mistakes on offense proved costly for the Leps.

BVA lost four fumbles and saw an Ed Weightman pass intercepted by Buddy Shaffer and returned 51 yards for a touchdown with 4:15 left in the first half to start the scoring for the Jaguars.

"We capitalized on their mistakes," claimed TJ's Bill Cherpak in his coaching debut. "And if you don't score, you can't win."

"This should be a good learning experience," said Dongilli.

BVA 27, Ringgold 2

The Leps rebounded from their defeat with an impressive performance at Ringgold Stadium.

Jason Murray raced 83 yards for a touchdown on the game's second scrimmage play to set the tone. Murray finished with 167 yards on 12 carries and added another score on a run of 47 yards.

While the Leps were running for 273 yards against the bigger Rams, the BVA defense was limiting Ringgold to two first downs and 81 total offense yards.

"Intensity and emotion was the difference," grinned Dongilli, who upped his record against Ringgold as a player and coach to 5-0.

BVA 15, West Mifflin 0

The Leps blanked the Titans in a battle of unbeatens in their home opener.

The Leps drove for a score on their first possession with Shaun Baker going over from four yards with Weightman closing the scoring on a five-yard run in the final period.

BVA's defense held West Mifflin to 97 total offense yards in recording its first shutout.

BVA 47, Knoch 0

In their final non-conference game at Jim Weir Stadium, the Leps avenged their lone regular season defeat of 1994.

Murray ran for 142 yards on 11 carries and scored touchdowns on runs of 15, 11 and 77 yards.

Weightman threw touchdown passes to Ryan Hawk and Bret Kalakewich to give the Leps a commanding 27-0 lead at halftime.

The Leps' defense held the Knights to 64 total offense yards.

BVA 25, Mt. Pleasant 19

The Leps had to stop the Vikings' Jeff Hood on two successive dives from the BVA three-yard line to preserve a shaky Keystone Conference-opening win at home.

BVA led 25-6 going into the final period before Mt. Pleasant rallied with a pair of touchdowns to make it close.

"We had some breakdowns in the second half that hurt us, like fumbles and penalties," noted Dongilli.

The Leps were penalized 11 times for 124 yards.

Murray ran for 201 yards on 18 carries including an 88-yarder in the second quarter.

BVA 12, Southmoreland 0

The Leps' defense returned to form holding the Scots to 58 total offense yards.

The defense set up the first score, a 25-yard run by Baker, when Chas Glasser returned an interception 26 yards to the Scots' 31.

Southmoreland held Murray to only 28 yards on 12 carries.

BVA 48, Elizabeth 0

Adam Spitznagel and Ron Krepps returned fumbles for interceptions and Weightman returned a blocked punt for six points as the BVA defense controlled the Warriors.

Murray added 169 yards on the ground and also caught a touchdown pass from Jason Nogy.

"You don't see too many teams with an overall team defense like that," said Elizabeth coach Rich Bowen. "I think they have a good shot at going to Three Rivers Stadium."

BVA 50, Yough 0

Dongilli's first game back to Cougar Mountain as an opposing coach was a record breaker.

Despite playing in a heavy rain, the Leps piled up 313 yards on the ground and scored the most points in the school's history.

Although Murray ran for 111 yards and scored twice, the spotlight went to No. 2 quarterback Jason Nogy.

The first five plays Nogy ran in the second half resulted in 22 points including three touchdowns and a pair of two-pointers.

BVA 35, Derry 0

The Leps wrapped up their second straight Keystone crown by routing the second-place Trojans at Jim Weir Stadium.

Norelli set up BVA's first touchdown with a 50-yard kick return, scored the second TD on a 38-yard punt return and closed the scoring with a 77-yard interception.

BVA's defense held Derry to two first downs and 68 total offense yards in posting its fourth straight shutout.

"I never expected a 35-0 game," said Dongilli. "We've just got great players and when you have great players, anything is possible, I guess."

BVA 54, Brownsville 0

The Leps tuned for the playoffs with several records at Brownsville.

Murray ran for a school single-game high of 247 yards with four touchdowns.

Shane Marchines' 56-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter enabled the Leps to score the most points in one game.

BVA 21, Kittanning 9

For the first time in Dongilli's stint at Jim Weir Stadium, the Leps trailed at halftime in their opening playoff test.

The Wildcats became the first team to score a touchdown in the opening period against the Leps this season and led 9-7 at intermission thanks to a 23-yard field goal by Shawn Farester.

The second half, however, was all BVA.

The Leps' defense limited the Wildcats to 43 total offense yards and three first downs with Weightman sealing the win by intercepting a pass and returning it 85 yards for a touchdown with 2:51 showing on the clock.

Murray, meanwhile, ran for 150 yards to raise his school single-season record to 1,710.

"Our kids showed championship character," climed Dongilli. "It was the kind of game I expected because they're well-coached."

BVA 28, Derry 21

The final score didn't tell the whole story in the first semifinal win in the Leps' history at Mt. Lebanon.

With Murray running for touchdowns of 34 yards in the second quarter and 42 yards in the third period, BVA led 21-7 before upping the margin to 28-7 on the first play of the fourth quarter on a 12 yard pass from Nogy to Kalakewich.

Derry, however, capitalized on two BVA fumbles to score a pair of touchdowns within 61 seconds on passes by Grant Dorn to cut the lead to seven with 3:14 remaining.

The Leps' Eric Huss ended the Trojans' comeback hopes with his second interception with 24 seconds left to go.

"You have to play for 48 minutes and we didn't," said Dongilli.

Monessen: Exceeded expectations

By JEFF OLIVER

When the football season began for Monessen, Greyhound coach Jack Scarvel felt he would have a contending team, but he never envisioned his squad advancing to Three Rivers Stadium to play for the WPIAL Class A crown.

After all, the Greyhound lost numerous talented players from last year's team and Scarvel didn't quite have a feel early on for the direction this team would go.

"We have a lot of character and we have a lot of characters," Scarvel smiled. "If you would have asked at the start of the season if I thought we could go this far, I would have told you 'no.' But this team is different. This is a special group of kids."

Here is the road the Greyhounds have taken to arrive at Three Rivers Stadium and a date against the Farrell Steelers on Saturday morning:

Monessen 33, Charleroi 0

The Greyhounds broke open a 7-0 game with 26 second-half points as sophomore Tavius Smith made a smashing debut in the Greyhound lineup, rushing for 87 yards on 11 carries and scoring three touchdowns.

Smith wasn't supposed to open the season in the starting backfield, but he opened the eyes of Monessen coaches in preseason scrimmages.

Monessen 35, Cornell 14

The trio of Josh Belczyk (17 carries, 89 yards, two TDs), Smith (17 for 86, 1 TD) and Ronza Ford (2 for 64, 1 TD) led Monessen to an awesome rushing performance.

On the night, the Greyhounds rolled up 375 yards on the ground as they blasted the Raiders. The depth in Monessen's backfield showed for the first time as all 10 running backs on the roster carried the ball at least once.

However, Scarvel was not impressed.

"Yeah, we ran the ball well, but we also made too many mistakes," he said. "We need to do a better job of holding on to the football."

The Greyhounds fumbled six times, losing four.

Monessen 20, Duquesne 6

Not only did the Greyhounds defeat a long-time rival, but they also chalked up the 500th win in the school's history.

The 21-7 win was punctuated by a strong game by Belczyk. The senior running back rushed for 71 yards on 18 carries and scored all three Monessen touchdowns.

About the 500 wins, Scarvel was low-key, saying, "I think it means something to the community, the fact that only something like 21 schools out of over 500 districts have ever won 500 games. I think it will hit home later on, but it's not like we're going to drink champagne over this."

Monessen 21, California 0

The Greyhounds opened play in the Tri-County South Conference with a shutout win as the defense stole the show in this game.

Junior linebacker Brian Lowther got the Greyhounds off and running when he scooped up a fumble and returned it 28 yards for a score.

Monessen gave up just 34 total yards in the game, holding Trojan running back Nathan Peters to just 38 yards on 16 carries and sacking quarterback Brady Barbero eight times for minus-32 yards.

"We played well defensively," said Scarvel. "It was a combination of things. The offense did its job in the second half and the defense kept them off the board in the first half, which I thought was important."

Linsly 29, Monessen 26

The Monessen express was derailed momentarily in its trip outside the Pennsylvania boundary.

The West Virginia school kept the Greyhounds off-balance with numerous big plays, both on the ground and through the air.

On the third play of the game, Linsly quarterback Jalonii Galloway hit Chad Pratz with an 85-yard scoring strike. Later, Ed Drummond, who had 116 yards rushing and scored two TDs, ripped off a 65-yard scoring run.

Monessen trailed 29-12 in the fourth quarter when the Greyhounds mounted a furious comeback. First, Robert Bristol scored from two yards out to make it 29-18.

Then, Ford scored on a 20-yard run and then scored a two-point converison to cut the gap to 29-26 with 4:19 remaining. However, the winners managed to run out the clock.

The Greyhounds enjoyed their biggest passing day of the season with 205 yards through the air as Smith caught four passes for 128 yards.

Monessen 25, Jeff-Morgan 7

The Greyhounds bounced back from their lone loss of the season, but it took a while for them to do so.

Jefferson-Morgan led the game, 7-0, at halftime and Monessen had just one first down.

The second half was a different story as the Greyhounds dominated play on both sides of the ball. Thomas Majors hauled in touchdown passes of 26 and 53 yards from Chad Jampedro.

Defensively, Monessen limited the Rockets to one first down and Les Strader blocked a punt and returned it 11 yards for a score.

Monessen 26, Mapletown 0

Belczyk enjoyed his first 100-yard rushing game with 116 yards on 14 carries and the Monessen defense held Mapletown scoreless with just 59 yards.

Ford scored two touchdowns on a 22-yard run and a dazzling 51-yard punt return.

"We played well this game," said a satisfied Scarvel. "We came off the ball and blocked well. We opened holes for Josh. On defense, the kids really played well."

Sensing things to come, Scarvel added, "If our kids make up their minds to play, they can play with anybody."

Monessen 21, Carmichaels 0

The Greyhounds upped their record to 7-1 as they clinched a playoff berth

Again, it was a combination of hard running by Belczyk and good defense that paved the way. Belczyk had 107 yards rushing on 19 carries and scored a touchdown.

Defensively, the Hounds held the Mikes to 103 yards, including minus-15 through the air.

Monessen 21, West Greene 6

The Greyhounds rolled as Belczyk had a season-high 184 yards rushing on 17 carries. He scored a touchdown on a 90-yard run.

Monessen lost a bid for a shutout late in the game when the Pioneers scored on a pass play.

Monessen 21, Frazier 0

The Greyhounds wrapped up the conference crown in impressive fashion, shutting out a Frazier team which had been averaging 34 points per game.

A key to the game came at the end of the first half when Monessen stopped the Commodores at the goal line to preserve a scoreless tie.

Belczyk had another phenominal game, rushing for 163 yards on 27 carries and scoring two touchdowns.

Monessen 13, Duquesne 6

The Greyhounds opened the WPIAL playoffs with their second win of the season over the Dukes in rainy and windy conditions.

Belczyk went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark with 166 yards on 34 carries and a touchdown.

"They were big and strong and just took it to us," said Duquesne coach Pat Monroe.

"It was hard-hitting football. It was our kind of football," said Monessen fullback Brad Jones.

Monessen 21, Riverview 20

The Greyhounds reached the championship game for the first time in 34 years as Mike Jampedro's extra-point conversion won the overtime contest.

Monessen forced overtime by stopping the previously unbeaten Raiders twice deep in Greyhound territory in the closing minutes, the second time on the one-yard line as time ran out.

"Winning this game feels good to me, but give the credit to the players. They played the game of their lives and it's because of them we are going to Three Rivers."

Q: Please tell me what you can about Mitzi Kapture of Silk Stalkings. –H.E.S., Erie, Pa.

Q: Where can I write to Mitzi Kapture? –Kathy Cross, Mooresville, N.C.

A: A native of Yorba Linda, Calif., Kapture grew up in Atlanta, where she studied at the Alliance Theatre. She landed guest roles on MacGyver and Lightning Force, as well as a Perry Mason movie of the week, after she returned to California.

Theatrical films include The Vagrant and Angel: The Final Chapter. Married to singer-songwriter Bradley Kapture, she is scheduled to direct several episodes of Stalkings this season.

A USA Network publicist advises fans to write to Kapture c/o Silk Stalkings, Stu Segall Productions, 4705 Ruffin Road, San Diego, Calif. 92123.

Q: Who is the handsome actor who played Almanzo Wilder in Little House on the Prairie? –Cynthia Herr, Bradenton, Fla.

A: That was Dean Butler, who later would play Rapunzel's Prince in the Broadway musical Into the Woods.

Q: I love JoBeth Williams, who I think bears a striking resemblance to actress Susan Hayward. Are they related? Also, is Miracle in the Rain available on video? –H. Grau, Hanford, Calif.

A: No on both counts. Sorry.

Q: I recently caught The Goodbye Girl on a local station. Is the little girl who played Marsha Mason's daughter now playing the policewoman on The John Larroquette Show? If so, what has she done between the two roles? –Nancy Chevalier, Mount Pleasant, N.C.

A: Despite a strong resemblance, these are two different actresses. Young Quinn Cummings copped an Oscar nomination for her work in

Mitzi Kapture

Goodbye, but her career sputtered not too long after that. Elizabeth Berridge, who played the put-upon maid in the NBC sitcom The Powers That Be and Mozart's wife in the film Amadeus, plays Officer Eggers on Larroquette.

Q: Why did Chad Lowe leave the NBC sitcom Spencer so soon? –Mister Kelley, Long Beach, Calif.

A: According to The Complete Directory to Prime Time Network TV Shows, "Lowe abruptly quit the show in a salary dispute after only a few episodes."

CLARIFICATION: I appreciate the many well-meaning letters I received "correcting" a recent answer about Fritz the Cat, but the answer stands, folks. The question was about a cartoon cat by Robert Crumb, the underground artist who created Fritz, NOT the more familiar Felix! The letter writer was looking for the 1972 adult animated film by Ralph Bakshi, loosely based on Crumb's feline creation.

WPIAL PLAYOFF FINALS

HOUNDS EYE GOLD

Hoping to send Farrell packing!

COLOR THEM CHAMPS!

JEFF OLIVER

For the first time in mid-Mon Valley sports history, two area schools will be playing for WPIAL football championships when Monessen meets Farrell (Class A) and Belle Vernon Area takes on Franklin Regional (Class AAA) at Three Rivers Stadium

And for the second time in as many weeks, the area's two most successful grid teams will treat their fans to playoff games on the same day at the same field allowing football junkies a chance to watch both teams for the price of one ticket

But, will either or both teams come home with the gold? ...

Monessen vs Farrell

Two teams steeped with football tradition collide in the first of four championship games at Three Rivers Stadium (11 30 a.m. kickoff).

The Steelers are making their fourth appearance in the title game since 1986 and their first since 1990. Monessen, meanwhile, is in the championship game for the first time in 34 years

On paper, the two teams look very even in terms of scoring, defense and style of play

This shapes up as another spirited game where the defense could prove to make the difference — remember the two big stands the Greyhounds came away with in the final minutes of the fourth quarter against Riverview to preserve the tie?

The feeling here is players like Brad Jones, Robert Bristol, Les Strader, Brian Lowther, Eugene Frezzell, Brian Franklin and P.J. Jones will have to turn in big games again for the Greyhound defense

It worked once, so let's go with it again ...

The pick: Monessen, 15-14.

BVA vs Franklin Regional

Going into this 5 p.m. contest, maybe the best thing that could have happened to the Leps was Derry's comeback a week ago which fell short in a 28-21 Lep win.

A lot of coaches say that a loss can do wonders to bring a team back to earth and get it back to working hard. Well, at this stage of the game, the closest thing to a loss for BVA was Derry's two-touchdown surge in the closing minutes.

That should let the Leps know that they can be scored on if they aren't at peak performance And, of course, it undoubtedly made those proud players angry that a lopsided game ended up looking extremely close.

Look for BVA to be even more aggressive and determined on defense. Offensively, the Leps showed a fresh approach against Derry with their early passing — something to give the Panthers more to think about than just Jason Murray.

The pick: BV Area, 21-7.

Beatin' the spread

Looking at the college menu:

*Pitt (+12) at West Virginia This used to be a great rivalry. Then, again, both schools used to have great football teams. Pick: West Virginia minus the points.

*Penn State (-7) at Michigan State. Nittany Lions appear to be focusing on a decent bowl bid. Pick: Penn State minus the points.

*Ohio State (-9) at Michigan. The Buckeyes have been rolling since Day One. Pick: Ohio State minus the points.

Last week: 1-2 vs the spread. Season record: 21-15 vs the spread.

On the NFL menu:

*Steelers (-5) at Cleveland. The last trip to Cleveland for the Steelers Browns may make last stand before going under for the season but Steelers are hot. Pick: Steelers minus the points.

*St. Louis (+10) at San Francisco. Blowout of the day. The 49ers are making a statement that, despite four losses, they are the league's best team. Pick: San Francisco minus the points.

*Tampa Bay (+8) at Green Bay. Can anyone stop Brett Favre? Not in this game. Pick: Green Bay minus the points.

*Philadelphia (-3) at Washington. Redskins turn to Heath Shuler while Eagles keep on winning. Pick: Philadelphia minus the points.

*Chicago (-2) at N.Y. Giants. Bears in danger of slipping out of playoff chase. This game is a must-win for them. Pick: Chicago minus the points.

Last week: 2-3 vs the spread. Season record: 22-28-1 vs the spread.

Scarvel says Hounds won't be nervous

By JEFF OLIVER
Sports writer

Playing in the school's first WPIAL championship football game in 34 years and also playing on the artificial surface a nationally-famous Three Rivers Stadium could be intimidating to the average teenaged gridder.

However, Monessen football coach Jack Scarvel isn't worried the least about his Greyhounds (11-1) suffering a case of the jitters when they tee up the football Saturday (11:30 a.m.) against Farrell (11-1) in the Class A title contest.

"No, not in the least," Scarvel said when asked if he had such concerns. "In fact, it's the other way around. These kids are loose and after our win over Riverview last week, we had to get them re-focused. They did some celebrating.

"They are confident they can win the game. I just hope they aren't over-confident," he added. "I think they are at the same level they've been all season. They respect Farrell, but it's like the saying you see on those T-shirts 'Respect everyone. Fear no one.' That's our kids' approach."

Scarvel said that the way the Greyhounds defeated Riverview in the semifinals, 21-20 in overtime, could work in his team's favor.

"I think it helped us to win the way we did," he said. "It was an emotional win. And with a game of this magnitude coming up, I think it will carry over for our kids. They are excited. They are ready to go."

But while he feels his kids are ready to play, Scarvel is also wary of a strong opponent in Farrell, which rolled over Western Beaver, 25-0, in a game which some observers claimed would have been the title matchup

"They have speed and size and those are two things we have to be concerned about," he said. "They have some big, quick backs. And I thought we'd have a size advantage on the line against them until I saw their roster. It appears they may be bigger than us up front."

As was the case against Riverview, Scarvel says his team will go against a squad which does things similar to that of the Greyhounds.

"They are a lot like us," said Scarvel. "But I think their quarterback is a kid who may do a little more things. He's being recruited by a Division I school (Kansas State), so he's got to be a good one. He's probably the key to their offense. We're going to have to get after him."

The key to Monessen's offense this season — particularly down the stretch — has been running back Josh Belczyk. Belczyk has rushed for 1,182 yards and scored 12 touchdowns. However, the senior workhorse had a streak of six straight games of 100 yards rushing or more snapped last week when he gained 79 yards on 17 carries against Riverview. Fellow running back Tavius Smich, a sophomore, has rushed for 612 yards and scored eight TDs. Junior tight end Thomas Majors has caught seven passes for 183 yards and four TDs.

Scarvel, who is a graduate of Farrell, smiled when asked if beating the Steelers would be the perfect way to cap the school's most successful season in his tenure.

"It would be a perfect script if we won," he said. "But, I'd rather be playing someone who was not as good as Farrell."

After 32 years of coaching at Monessen, even though Scarvel is in the title game for the first time, he claims winning the game would be more important to his players.

"Naturally, you want to win," he said. "But on a personal level, I'd love to see us win for the kids. They worked hard and they deserve to win. I played in a championship game and I played on an undefeated college team. I think it means more to the kids, the community and the school to win than it does to the coaches.

"The big thing is that I hope the kids play well. If we get the effort, than that's all I can ask for. And I know I'll get the effort. I know these kids are pointing to this game."

And the WPIAL Class A title.

PRE-GAME NOTES: Brad Jones has completed three passes this season for a whopping 134 yards ... Against Riverview, quarterback Chad Jampedro hit on three of 10 passes.
